Knopf. 1 Cloth(s), 2013. hard. Book Condition: New. A veteran of the French Resistance dies, leaving behind documents that connect him to a notorious train robbery, and a former British spymaster's estate is expertly burglarized. An academic's home is broken into before she can finish writing a book on France's nuclear weapons program, while an antiques dealer is found murdered, his former lover on the run. It's just another summer in St. Denis for Bruno, who must balance the constant barrage of demands on his time and expertise including the complex affections of two powerful women, an irrepressible puppy named Balzac, and nights entertaining friends and visitors with ever-sumptuous repasts with a new focus on the mounting crime wave, whose seemingly unrelated events Bruno begins to suspect are linked. The past is never really past, and soon Bruno is fighting to secure the future of his beloved community and those he cares about most. The sole policeman in the little village of St. Denis in the South of France, Benoît "Bruno" Courrèges lives in a restored shepherd's cottage, shops at the local market, and distills his own vin de noix. Most of his police work involves helping local farmers to avoid paying E.U. inspectors' fines. But in Martin Walker's wonderfully atmospheric series, Bruno is called upon to solve cases every bit as complicated as those in the city. "Rides on horseback through the French countryside of the Dordogne. Elaborately prepared and explained meals. Wines. And, oh yes, a mystery blended into this heady mix. While most readers think the British have a line on cozies, Walker makes a great case for the French version. Much to admire and sigh over in this appetizing mystery." Booklist 323.
