Xulon Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Life is a challenge, and we encounter so many circumstances, situations, difficulties, decisions and emotional ups and down in our journey. In this book I have put together various Inspirational Poems and Reflections. You will find poems about facing reality, character building, and words to give you something to think about. You will find topics about love, leadership, fear, reflection, peace, inspiration and food for thought! I pray that this book will be an inspiration and encouragement to your life. Margie Aguilar has been married to a loving husband, Minister, for more than 22 years and a mother of two beautiful teenagers. She s been involved in the mission field and has served in her church and the community for over 26 years. Together with her family they serve in the church, and community in any way they can, to be effective members in the body of Christ. She is a song writer, a worshipper and an Author. She had the privilege and honor to publish her first book in 2013 entitled Unspoken Words When you can t find the words to say. Her prayer is that she can grow more intimate, passionate, and loving in the Lord, and that she will be an example where ever she is.
