

Flowers at My Feet: Western Wildflowers in Legend, Literature and Lore

By Brenan M. Simpson

Hancock House Publishers Ltd ,Canada. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Flowers at My Feet: Western Wildflowers in Legend, Literature and Lore, Brenan M. Simpson, Does the lotus bloom in Lotusland? Why does a clover leaf adorn the suit of clubs in a deck of cards? What do Roman soldiers shaving their legs have to do with wildflowers? The author answers these and other questions in this book. Simpson roots around in lore, legend, literature and language as he takes a light-hearted look at the wildflowers of the West. Writing about both native and non-native plants, Simpson finds the process of identification by common and botanic names leads to many interesting stories behind the names. Quoting from such sources as Chaucer, Homer and the Bible, the author goes beyond the plain botanical facts and into our cultural heritage.
