His earliest scientific remembrance was distinguishing a snowdrop from some species of Leucoixim in the spring. He carried his tusto with him to school, and used to bring home with him in the holidays the plants he had found. His father encouraged him, and used to help him to inuke out tho names of his discoveries by means of an old herbal. On one occasion a plant was brought back which puzzled them all-a grout muss of trefoil uniformly with four leaflets, about which their book was quite silent. It was not till years after, that Welwitsch knew it as Mariska quadrifoliata. An apothecary in the town(? Klagenfurt) also assisted him in his early botanical studies. In due course he was sent to tho University of Vienna, being intended for the legal profession. But the irresistible tendency towards Natural Science drew him from tho Law, and he made no...
