University of Minnesota Press, United States, 1989. Paperback. Condition: New. Minnesota Archive Editions ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. Hart Crane was first published in 1989. Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long-unavailable books once again accessible, and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions. More than half a century after his death, the work of Hart Crane (1899-1932) remains central to our understanding of twentieth-century American poetry. During his short life, Crane s contemporaries had difficulty seeing past the roaring boy who drank too much and hurled typewriters from windows; in recent years, he has come to be seen as a kind of last poet whose only theme is self-destruction, and who himself exemplifies the breakdown of poetry in the modern age. Taking as a point of departure Robert Lowell s 1961 valuation of Crane and his power to speak from the center of things, Warner Berthoff in this book reappraises the essential character and force of Crane s still problematic achievement. Though he takes into account the substantial body of commentary on Crane s work, his primary intent is to look afresh at the poems themselves, and at the poet s clear-eyed (and brilliant) letters. This approach enables Berthoff, first, to track the emergence and development of Crane s lyric style--an art that recreates, in compact form, the turbulence of the modern city. He then explores the background and historical community that nourished Crane s creative imagination, and he evaluates Crane s conception of the ideal modern poetic: a poetry of ecstasy created with architectural craft. His final chapter is devoted to The Bridge, the ambitious lyric suite that proved to be the climax and terminus of Crane s work. Berthoff s emphasis throughout is on the beauty and power of...
