Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It s OK to Talk About Sex offers practical and down to earth advice, drawn from the authors real life experience in early childhood education, sex education, parenting and grandparenting. This is a thoughtful and authoritative guide to the gentle, formative power of confident and confiding communication between you and your child. This book will leave you feeling clearer and more confident on ways to approach these sometimes awkward areas surrounding human sexuality so that you can guide your child from birth on, by building a close and trusting relationship. The authors offer practical help for caregivers in maintaining open communication with their children about the often hidden but most important topic of sexuality.
