Have you got any list of your customers V Certainly, said Mr. Rattary. Just look in that cracked teapot on the chimney, and you will find a bit of paper folded up, which contains the addresses of a few houses where I works. Just hand em down, and well look over em. Tom, with rather a puzzled air, took the packet out of the racked teapot, which consisted chiefly of tradesmens printed cards; some of them being the printed cards of the ostromers. others having the addresses of the cvr. . nmeis writta on their backs. See Notes and Narratives of a City Mission, p. 38. Scarcely a sweep known to me has escaped this dreadful disease. I remember but one who has not been operated on- some many times, and several have died. See also Appendix. Tom handed...
