In the address of consecration which I had the honor to pronounce on that occasion, this day was not foreseen. We anticipated the ordinary exigencies of the place which was thus dedicated by appropriate religious rites, and named so fitly Evergreen Cemetery, a name most appropriate here for its natural, more rich even and beautiful for its spiritual significance. Indeed, we could not but anticipate the natural conditions of mortality, under which, from all the dear relations of life, the bodies of our dead, our beloved, were to be brought here.
