

Mary s Story Song (Paperback)

By Mary Haralson Coleman

Meredith Etc, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Mary was born in 1933 in Scott, County Mississippi to sharecroppers. Her memoir described her two fathers as the most significant people in her childhood. One of them was impoverished and indebted to white landowners, and the other owned property and was independent. They agreed to expose Mary to both worlds. Change is hard, but Mary found her way, and the inspiration to dream. With the gift of song and the mind to step out of the box, Mary broke ground in business and in song. Meredith Etc Editorial Review EXCERPT: At age six, I, along with my siblings attended a one room school, where . Mr. McCarter taught first through eighth grade. We carried our lunch to school in small molasses buckets which consisted of whatever we had left over from the previous day. We did not eat sandwiches like children do today; we ate peas, greens, salt meat and cornbread. Sometimes we had a baked sweet potato for dessert. Bessie often sat on the porch and dipped snuff. I wanted to try it, and be grown. One day, I asked her...
