Excerpt: . . . 11 man of Safer America for Everyone; and Mr. James Casey, director of policy and business development, from NeuStar Corporation. While theyre coming forward to take their seats, let me say that I want to put in the record a statement from Jan Whitley. Jan is from Silver Spring, Maryland, and I believe is here with her 3 chil-dren. Jan, are you in the audience Would you identify yourself And your children are here, and tell me their names. Ms. W. This is Dana. She is 7. And thats Dara, and she HITLEY is 10. ORGAN Senator D. Well, we will put your statement in the record, and we thank you and your daughters for coming. Ms. W. Thank you very much. HITLEY ORGAN Senator D. And Jans daughters are, like Senator Ensigs children and my children and all the children of our country, they are, Im sure, wonderful young people that want to use the Internet as a great, new resource in their lives, but we, as parents, want them to be able to use it with some protection and some under-standing that theyre not being subjected to horribly inappropriate material. And thats the purpose of the legislation. And so, again, Jan Whitley, thank you very much, and your statement will be a part of the permanent record. Mr. Rodriguez, you are director of the Exploited Child Unit of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children in Alexandria, Virginia...
