University of Wisconsin Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Pickled Herring and Pumpkin Pie: A Nineteenth-Century Cookbook for German Immigrants to America, Louis A. Pitschmann, Henriette Davidis, "Pickled Herring and Pumpkin Pie" is the reprint of a best-selling nineteenth-century German cookbook that was adapted for Germans living in America. As several German-language editions were published in Milwaukee, the recipes and other information evolved considerably, and the book was eventually translated into English with the title "Practical Cookbook." The result is a fascinating mix of recipes from Old and New Worlds, ranging from traditional German fare (see the Beef Rouladen) to very American dishes (try the version of Strawberry Shortcake) to frontier cuisine how about some roasted beaver tails? In addition to such culinary delights, "Pickled Herring and Pumpkin Pie" offers a glimpse into life in a nineteenth-century immigrant household and how immigrants tried to preserve the old ways while adapting to a new environment. Features of the cookbook include advice on how to use such "new" ingredients as corn or equipment like the Dutch oven, and how to shop in America, grow a proper kitchen garden, preserve food, cook medicinal dishes, and entertain properly. Pickled Herring and Pumpkin Pie offers authentic immigrant recipes in their cultural, social, and historical context. It is a delightful resource for epicures with a historical bent as well as for those who enjoy learning more about the day-to-day life of their ancestors."
