Dorrance Publishing Co., United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Suicide took many lives from many countries worldwide. Many opined that hopelessness seems to be the leading factor in many suicide cases. Clearly, it is the easiest way out of a difficult situation, but people who took their lives may have missed opportunities of seeing better days. Suiza Karol retells the story of Harun, a Turkish man who lost all his wealth in the 1994 economic crisis in Turkey. Impoverished when he went to his wife s country in Tashkent, Uzbekistan and unable to find a suitable job because of language barrier, he committed suicide. Fortunately, his wife saved his life. If Harun s suicide was not abated, he would have missed the good fortune awaiting them amidst their struggle to live a decent life. This true story of real people inspires positivity that all of us need in these times of economic difficulty, along with other challenges that faces modern society. Suiza Karol is a native of Istanbul, Turkey. He currently owns an import/export business. This graduate of Ankara University dabbles in writing poetry and has been a member of the Uzbekistan Writers Organization since 2008. A well-rounded individual, he also is an enthusiast of game hunting, sea sports, and motorcycle riding.
