Outskirts Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I would sit there and listen for the music, Then would I start to sing. From the time that Earlean created a piano on her mother s kitchen table, and followed the music she heard all around her with her fingers and her voice, she has listened for the harmony of the world and the melodious voice of God. Through the years, she has captured her life story in poetry. My Poetic Journey is a unique poetic memoir, with the pieces prefaced by anecdotes explaining the circumstances from which each set of verses blossomed. As a Christian writer, Earlean knows that her gift is given to her by the Holy Spirit, and considers her poetry a sacred trust to share with her readers. Earlean s beautiful perspective on life, love, family, suffering, and spirituality is expressed in a warm, accessible voice that immediately captivates and comforts. Share Earlean s remarkable 92 years on this earth, and the inspiration, enlightenment, and joy that she and God have to share with you.
