Transubstantiation was first made an article of faith, in the year 1215, by the fourth Lateran council. Auricular confession, now set up in the Romish church, as a sacrament instituted by our Saviour and necessary to obtain God s pardon, was first enjoined by the same council. The doctrine of purgatory did not get any credit, till about the year 1140, and the council of Trent first stamped it an article of faith. The doctrine of indulgences is a weed that grew up with it, like ivy twines round, and lives upon, it; but did not grow to any considerable height, till Leo X. s time; when the gross abuse of it drew forth the animadversions of Luther, who successfully p posed it. Many of the most eminent popish divines, and among them Fisher, bishop of Rochester, admit, that indulgences were not deemed necessary in the first ages of the church; and that they were not devised, till the people were frightened by the torments of purgatory, against which they had recourse to them. Image worship was first attempted to-be established by the second council of Nice, in in the year 784-; but it was not practised in France for 900, nor in Germany for 1200 years after the incarnation. The council of Constance, A. D. 14-14, first denied the cup to the laity; and the council of Florence, A. D. 1439, first fixed the number of seven sacraments, and made it an article...
