Nay--speak not thus, my father dear; But one short year away --and then, Make promise--thou wilt wander here, And visit us again. Daily I ll watch thy favourite vine Put forth its verdant shade of leaves, And train its tendrils to entwine And trellis all the eaves. Fondly I ll note when budding flowers O erhang thy favourite window-seat;--And eager count the passing hours Until, at length, we meet Oh, quickly speed thee back again! And now, she cried, a fond farewell! Soon will a year elapse: --till then Remember Isabelle I Even now, methinks, her parting words As if prolonged by magic spell, Still vibrate on my spirit s chords-- Remember Isabelle! The tedious years at length went past: Again I reached a foreign shore: With joyful steps I trade at last Provence s soil once more. I stood upon a vine-clad spot...
